

Elizabeth A. McDonnell

Chemical Heritage Foundation
315 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia, PA 19106

(E) emcdonnell@chemheritage.org
(P) 215.873.8210
(F) 215.629.5210

EDUCATION

- 2009 MS Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA
(Arts Administration)
- 2005 BA Franklin & Marshall College, Lancaster, PA
(Creative Writing, Women & Gender Studies)

RECENT WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2009–Present Chemical Heritage Foundation, Philadelphia, PA
Program Associate, Center for Contemporary History and Policy
- 2009–2010 Pelican Seven Studios, Philadelphia, PA
Freelance Sales and Marketing Writer
- 2006–2009 University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA
Administrative Assistant, the Kelly Writers House

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

- 2011 Making Climate Change Real: Artists Respond | Communicating Science through Contemporary Art (The Public History of Science and Technology Conference, USC)
- 2009 Masters Thesis: Volunteer Management Strategies for Annual Festivals: Six Festivals in Philadelphia, PA (Drexel University)

SERVICE

- 2008-Present Act as team leader for a charity event; fundraised $44,000+ at present

AWARDS

- 2008 Two monologues selected for performance, Eye on the Sky Productions
- 2006 Nomination for the Pushcart Prize
- 2005 Awarded one of ten nationally offered fellowships to study poetry at the Bucknell University Seminar for Younger Poets
- 2005 The Academy of American Poetry Prize
- 2005 The Barbara Nelson Award for Creative Writing